GETTING STARTED

If you could spend a day with any person past or present, who would it be? Why?

DISCUSS

When you think about being real with someone new, what emotions do you experience?

- Would the way you feel align with your faith and call to follow Christ?

How do you see "realophobia" manifesting in your daily life?

- What is one step you can take to walk in openness with others?

Can you recall a time where being open backfired? What about a time where the outcome was positive?

Why do you think people in Omaha are so stressed? Did this statistic surprise you?

Read and reflect on Ephesians 4:25-31

God has identified us as his own. How does this knowledge encourage you to live a more authentic life?

How do you think our society has shaped us to avoid asking for help?

People in Omaha need us to be authentic as Christ followers. Authenticity and vulnerability are sometimes lacking in believers and this can turn seekers away. What is one realistic thing you can do this week to open up in a real way to a non believer?

APPLY IT

“We” changes us and “We” changes the world.

The world and more importantly, the city we live in, needs Christ. Being authentic and letting down our guard is vital to sharing the Gospel.

Can you imagine the thrill of doing something new and scary? Is being known that scary thing for you? Are you dealing with “Realophobia?” Let’s take a risk this week and share who we truly are.
